Washington, January 13—, 1881.

Sir:

I have received, through the office of the Director of the Mint, your memoranda of certain mutilated coins sent you by this office some time since for deposit of proceeds in the Sub-Treasury at Philadelphia.

Will you be kind enough to inform me why the memoranda in question were transmitted by you through the office of the Director of the Mint; and, if you have received any written instructions to that effect will you be kind enough to send me a copy thereof?

Very respectfully,

Asst Secretary U.S.

Hon. A. London Snowden,
Superintendent U.S. Mint.
